

Steven Stauss, EA, NTPI Fellow, is founder of Stauss Tax Services, and a resident of Santa Fe, New Mexico has lived in California, Texas, Washington State and Mexico City. He has degrees from UC Berkeley and San Jose State University and worked in the computer industry for more than 25 years (IBM, HP and startups) before entering the field of tax practice. Steven believes in giving back to the community where he lives. He currently serves on the board of a local non-profit (Thubten Norbu Ling Buddhist center), and has been a board member of his home owner's association. For 18 months he worked on a city park planning committee in Half Moon Bay, CA and for five years was data management chair for the annual auction at his son's school. Steven was Vice President of the NMSEA, an active member of the National Association of Enrolled Agents (NAEA) and a life member of the Sierra Club.